RANDONNÉE RALLIES / SKI MOUNTAINEERING RACES February 16 (Presidents' Day) and March 14 (Saturday), 2009

The first-ever randonné rallies / ski mountaineering races to be held in Southern Vermont!

What it is: Skin up from the base of Magic Mountain to the summit of the old Timber Side/Ridge ski area, ski down the former (yet still maintained, although ungroomed ski area), skin back over to the summit of Magic, and ski down an expert ungroomed trail back to the base of Magic. In it for the Shortened Course (i.e., “Heavy Metal Division”): then congratulations, you’re done! In it for the Full Course: then skin directly back up the top of Magic for another lap within Magic.

When it is: February 16 (Monday, Presidents’ Day) and March 14 (Saturday), registration opens at 7:30, pre-race briefing at 8:30, start at 9:00, post-race backcountry clinics at noon.

What you need: Any setup with climbing skins (e.g., randonné, alpine touring, telemark, splitboard); and, a helmet (ski, bike, or climb).

After the Race: Backcountry clinics conducted by NSP/AIARE avalanche instructor in avalanche beacon searching (all current models will be available for demo), emergency evacuation sled construction, and steep skinning technique.

How much it costs: $20, which can be credited toward post-race lift-ticket
(free for season pass holders)
